Comments:

The site is zone R3 Medium Density Residential. Sheds ancillary to dwelling houses are permitted with development consent on land zoned R3. The shed does have some very minor exceedances of Section 9.4.4 of the 2010 DCP controls. The land owner requires these exceedances to satisfy his vehicle and domestic storage requirements and maintain POS between the dwelling and shed. The C2 rear setback control is 1m and the proposed setback is 900mm, a 100mm exceedance. The C3 floor area control is 8% of the lot. The shed will have a floor area of 9.5%, a 1.5% exceedance. Based on the minor exceedances a variation to the DCP controls is requested.
